

Take Care of Tomorrow Today

YES	NO	Are you comfortable with the state deciding what happens to you and your most important possessions?
YES	NO	Should something happen to you, have you specified who will care for your children?
YES	NO	Do you want your children to control their inheritance when they turn 18?
YES	NO	Did you know when your children turn 18, you no longer have access to medical records or influence over their medical decisions unless they provide legal documentation?
YES	NO	If something happens to you, do you know who will make healthcare and life decisions for you?
YES	NO	Have you completed a HIPAA form so select members of your family (including your spouse) will have access to your medical info?
YES	NO	Have you or loved ones completed an Advance Directive/Living Will to acknowledge your intentions about life support?
YES	NO	Should you become incapacitated, have you identified who will handle your financial and legal affairs?
YES	NO	Have you specified how your estate will be distributed?
YES	NO	Do you want your family going through a lengthy, public process known as probate at the time of your death?

If you answered “no” to any of these questions, you need NetLaw.

NetLaw exists to help you protect your family, your health and your legacy.

Visit netlawinc.com for more information.

April Caldwell | 904-616-0600 | april.caldwell@tfaconnect.com | <https://goo.gl/sejhGj>

Be prepared. Take care of tomorrow today.

Who would you appoint to make healthcare and/or end-of-life decisions for you?

A Medical Power of Attorney names who you trust to make healthcare decisions on your behalf when you can't.

First Choice/ Full Legal Name/Relationship

Second Choice/ Full Legal Name/Relationship

Who can communicate with your doctors and access your private medical information?

By completing a HIPAA form, your medical documents will be available to your family members to make educated decisions.

First Choice/ Full Legal Name/Relationship

Second Choice/ Full Legal Name/Relationship

Who will serve as your executor/personal representative? Without a Will, state law dictates who gets your assets.

This is true even if you have already told friends and family which assets you want them to have when you die.

First Choice/ Full Legal Name/Relationship

Second Choice/ Full Legal Name/Relationship

Who will take care of your minor children if something were to happen to you?

The only way to guarantee that your wishes are fulfilled is by naming a Guardian in your Will.

First Choice/ Full Legal Name/Relationship

Second Choice/ Full Legal Name/Relationship

Who would you appoint as Successor Trustee?

By creating a Revocable Living Trust and transferring your assets, you can save your family the time and expense of the probate process.

First Choice/ Full Legal Name/Relationship

Second Choice/ Full Legal Name/Relationship

Who will be your Financial Power of Attorney to pay your bills, write checks, vote stock, etc.?

A Power of Attorney allows you to appoint someone to act on your behalf with regard to financial affairs, business or other legal matters.

First Choice/ Full Legal Name/Relationship

Second Choice/ Full Legal Name/Relationship

Your financial future, your family's financial future, and your legacy depend on how you preserve your estate.